Budva hotels

Budva metropolis of Montenegrin tourism, the city that exists two and half millennia, considered one of the oldest settlements in the Adriatic. Surrounded by mountain ranges on one side and the beautiful azure sea on the other side where coming out with its sandy beaches, is rightfully called "Beauties of the Adriatic". Town without industry, turned exclusively to tourism and trade, until recently and fishing, Budva is a famous trade fair center in this part of the southern Adriatic.

Strung along the sandy coast which in the hinterland is surrounded by untouched nature and old villages, which have kept the spirit of the past, on the Riviera from Jaz to Buljarica there are several tourist centers Becici, Rafailovici, Pržno, Milocer, Sveti Stefan, Petrovac each in its own way so appealing and unique.

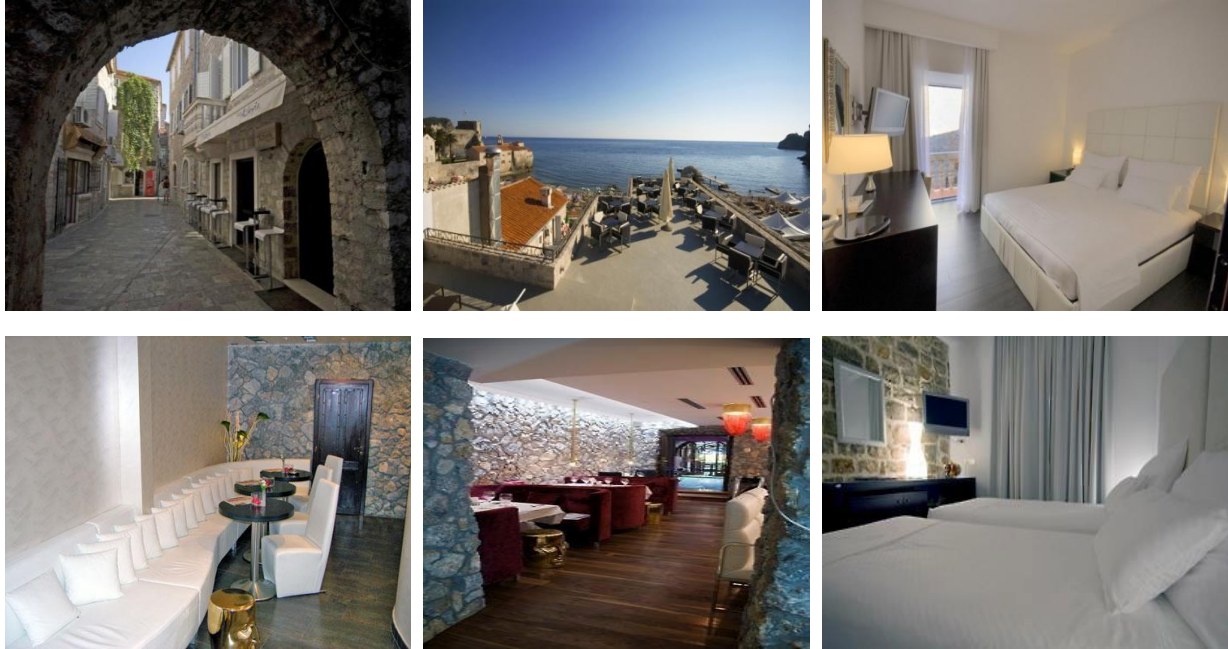

The unusual combination of ancient Mediterranean and modern architecture, united on this small part of the Montenegrin coast, makes Budva real paradise for tourists. In summer, the city of youth, great disco in the open for all those looking for entertainment, a synonym of fun, Budva Riviera is also an oasis of rest for guests who want to enjoy in peace and quiet.

The old town of Budva which is located on a small peninsula, surrounded by stone ramparts built at the end of the fifteenth century, which represents a medieval fortification system with city gates, defense walls and towers. According to urbanism, the city is a combination of narrow streets and small squares with valuable monuments of different cultures that marked its development.

Here, not far from the sandy beach, within the ancient walls, life boils in ancient fullness. Fortresses and squares become stages under the open sky, the interior of the churches are becoming showrooms and concert halls, writers and poets from around the world at the Square of poets lead a dialogue with art lovers. In hidden taverns you can relax with music coastal clapboard, fish, squid, mussels, good wine and romance. The hyper-urban generation participates in the collective rave party in various bars. Simply, should be left to Budva evening, to go with the rhythm of your heart and it will surely happen great fun or perhaps cheer you up a little shopping. In the evening bustle and good mood, with eyes full of graceful girls in the decor of the Old Town, also the biggest pessimist has to believe that beauty will save the world.

With a invitation that you, as always dear guests we want to you feel comfortable in Budva and come back to us again.
